

Aikya Club Banquet Hall Rules

1. The banquet hall is available for private events, family functions, and official gatherings, subject to prior booking and approval.
2. Bookings are allotted on a first-come, first-served basis and must be confirmed with advance payment as per Club policy.
3. Members booking the hall are fully responsible for the conduct of their guests and adherence to Club rules.
4. Catering and decoration services must be availed through the Club's authorized vendors unless specific exemptions are granted.
5. Alcohol service is subject to applicable laws and prior approval from Club management.
6. Loud music, fireworks, or any activity causing nuisance to other Members or surrounding areas is strictly prohibited.
7. The hall must be vacated at the agreed time; additional charges apply for extended use.
8. Any damage to Club property, fixtures, or equipment during an event will be charged to the booking Member.
9. The Club reserves the right to decline bookings for events deemed inappropriate or against Club policies.
10. Management decisions regarding bookings, cancellations, and usage of the banquet hall shall be final and binding.
