

Aikya Club Conference Hall Rules

1. The conference hall may be used by Members and their guests only with prior booking and approval from the Club management.
2. Bookings must be made in advance, and the Member making the booking will be held responsible for any damages or violations.
3. The use of audio-visual equipment, furniture, and other facilities must be with prior permission and under supervision if required.
4. Food and beverages are permitted only through the Club's designated catering service unless otherwise authorized.
5. Smoking and consumption of alcohol are strictly prohibited inside the conference hall unless approved for specific events.
6. Members must ensure that noise levels are maintained at a reasonable level and do not disturb other areas of the Club.
7. The hall must be vacated within the allotted time; extra usage will attract additional charges as per Club policy.
8. Any damage to property or equipment will be charged to the booking Member.
9. The Club management reserves the right to cancel or reschedule bookings in exceptional circumstances.
